

2019 GCAO AGM

The Annual General Meeting was well attended by past and present Board Members as well as a good representation of our member GC firms. (See below for photos) New GCAO Board members were introduced, the change in portfolios and also the changing of the guard as Russell Grass moves into the Past President role and Yves Beaudoin takes over as President. Chris Curry of Petrela, Winter and Associates delivered a great update on events and market shifts as it pertains to GC bonding and insurance. Also the GCAO's prestigious Awards were also handed out for outstanding General Contractor projects completed in the last year. This years event took place at the Brookstreet Hotel.
